

Franz Henri und Magda Dulong

Gästebücher Bd. IV

Dulong Franz Henri von. *26.2.1861 Hamm (Westf.)

A tenor singer, who was born in Hamm, in Westphalia, Germany, and who studied under Robert Emmerich at Stuttgart and with Vannucini in Florence. He passed the early years of life directing the affairs pertaining to his large estates in Germany. His debut was made in 1895, and he has toured in various parts of Europe as a concert-singer, having participated with his wife, Magda von Dulong, at the London Popular concerts and the Symphony concerts. He appeared by command before the late Queen Victoria at Windsor and the Empress Frederick of Germany and her son, the present Emperor.

Dulong, Magda von. *29.2.1879 Halle/Saale

A concert contralto, the wife of Franz Henri von Dulong. She was born at Halle, Germany. She was the daughter of Prof. Zahn, a teacher of theology. She studied under Hromada, Frau Joachim, and Madame Etelka Gerster, making her debut under the name of Magda Lossen. Her voice is a rich mezzo, and both in England and on the Continent she and her husband are greatly esteemed.

Quelle:

http://www.tribalsmile.com/music/article_162.shtml

Neubeuern:

9.3.1903